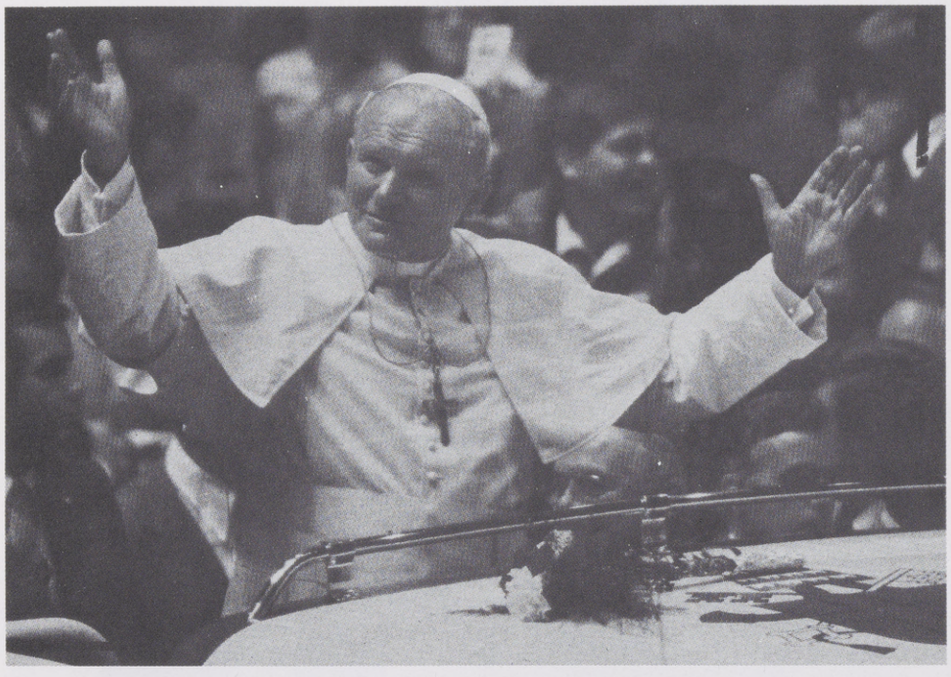
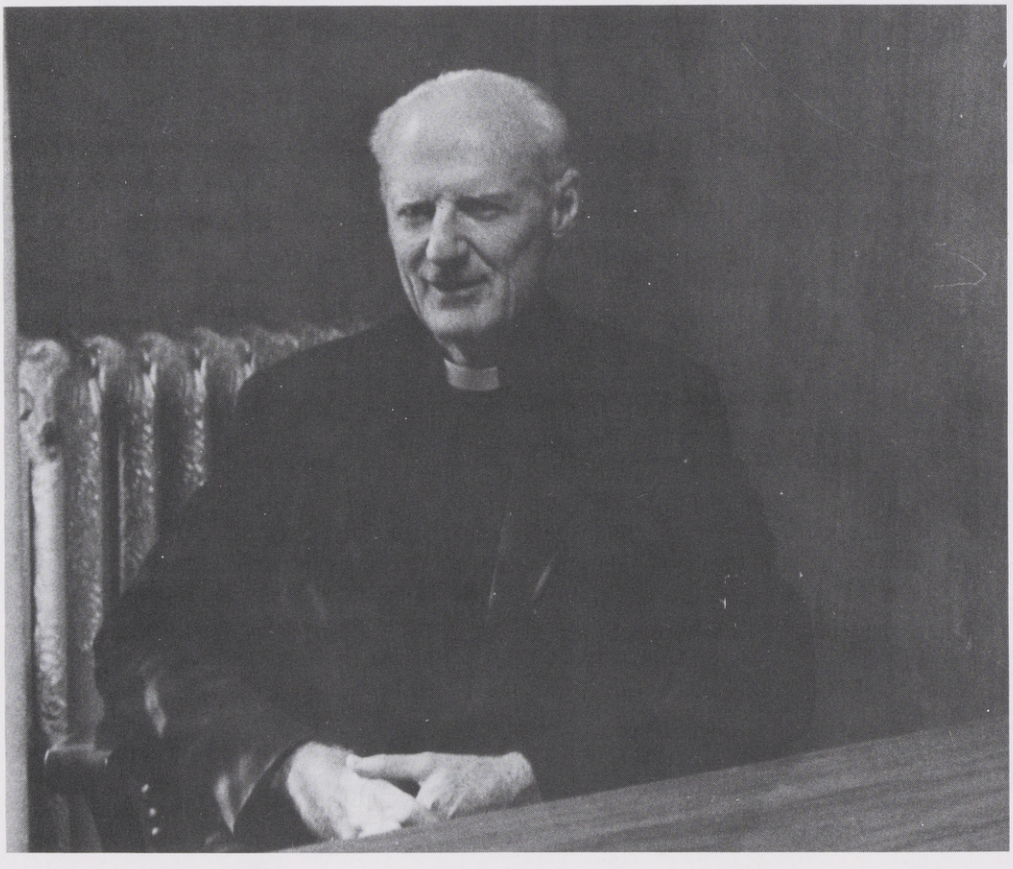
Makers of Memories

His Holiness, Pope John Paul II





Rev. William Kegel, Associate Pastor

His Excellency, John Cummins,
Bishop of Oakland

Rev. Edward Gracias, Associate Pastor

This theme finds beautiful and inspiring expression in the lines of Horace, "Laudator temporis acti, se puero," a praiser of days gone by when he was a youth.

The material for memories is made up of the "temporis acti", the days gone by, namely, the use of time. Memories in the future depend on the accomplishments and the experiences of the present. Without the good use of current time the content of memories will either be empty or unpleasant, or even regrettable memories. Memories must be merited. They include the thrill of accomplishment; the more one accomplishes, the more one accumulates works well done, the better and the happier the memories.

For memories to be magnificent, our thoughts and our words as well as our actions of today must be magnanimous, wholesome and elevating. Likewise, the background as well as the foreground in the setting of our memories depend on our associations and their influence on us. "Vice is a monster of such mien as to be hated, needs but to be seen; yet seen too often familiar with her face we first endure, then pity, then embrace." (Alexander Pope)

A truly Catholic school can be the guarantor of memories sublime and salutary - welcome and enjoyable. This can be productive of enormous good here and hereafter. Memories of only fun, frolic and foolishness can become threadbare and worn. Without the practice and the vision of faith, memories can be meaningless. How welcome the memories that are associated with the Fruits of the Holy Spirit - Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Benignity, Goodness, Long-Suffering, Mildness, Faith, Modesty, Continency, and Chastity.

Memories are associated, also, with the locations where we lived, where we studied, and where we prayed, especially the spot where our thoughts were best and the gifts received are so valuable. The fondest of memories will be the beauty of God's House and the place where His Glory dwelleth.

Indeed, we are the makers of memories - memories that will please us, comfort us, and enlighten us in our role of "Laudator Temporis acti, se puero."

Members of the Class of '81 this year found themselves excited at the prospect of being upperclassmen. Unity and involvement became an important part of the Class of '81's California theme for Spirit Week 1979. Class officers and committee chairmen worked to involve the entire class in everything from the Western skit and parade to cheering, stunts and other events. With a new theme each day and fresh spirit to match, the Bears, according to one class member, "really pulled together to get things done."

Juniors Make Rings Special

Notre Dame juniors this year were given the chance to become a part of an interesting and unique experience. As usual, late in November all members of the Class of '81 received their class rings, but the girls here chose to add to the tradition with a ring-blessing ceremony, which consisted of a short address by Sister Veronica, as well as appropriate songs and a reception following. By the time the ceremony was completed, all agreed it was well worth the time.

"Sophomore spirit: a quality; the state of being perpetually involved in some activity. Traditionally, applied to sophomore classes."

Predictably, the Class of '82 was no tradition-breaker. Its members, rather, conformed closely, engaging themselves in every pursuit from membership on the Reflections staff to a simple "Hello!" on the stairway before class. And it wasn't their fault they were so active. After all, it's tradition.

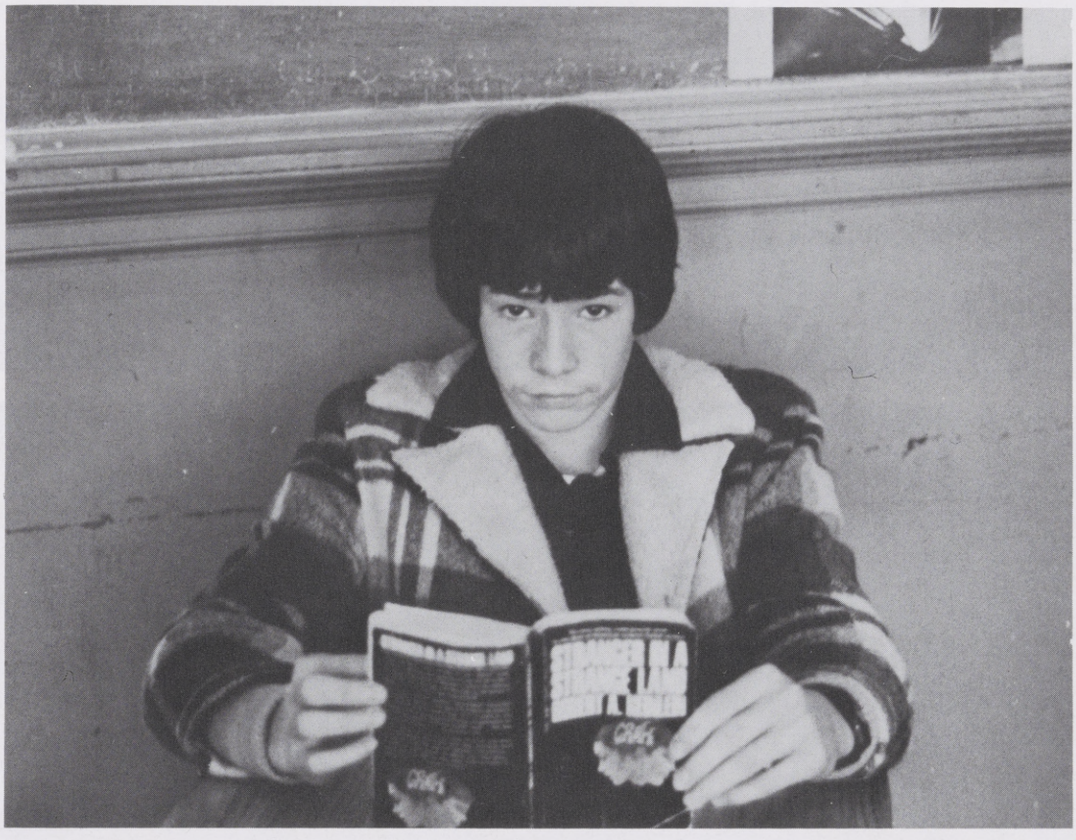
Sophs Move into School Mainstream



Acclimated. That seemed to be the byword for the Class of '82 this year. Students busied themselves all over campus assuming the leadership role that befits a class with increasing school experience. Providing a strong showing at Spirit Week and utilizing this type of dedication from the start the Cougars began raising funds for the annual Soph Hop with a fairly successful lumpia sale. One student remarked, "We want our soph year to be really great and we're willing to work hard."

A Journey Through Time

Time Machine . . . the Class of '82 began with the 50's and cheered all the way through to the 80's! With Sophomore unity and pride, they "took a licking and kept on ticking," presenting various aspects of each decade on its appointed day. They didn't win, but no matter what the circumstances, the Spirit of '82, like time, marched on.

Cougars Take It in Stride

By now playing the role of experienced Sophomores, the Class of '82 learned to take the day-to-day hassles of high school life in stride. With the hectic week of semester exams behind them, and with the vision of a fast approaching summer just ahead, class members bounded, like true Cougars, into the new team. And there were benefits; by cooperating as a group, the students of the Class of '82 were to enjoy not only the material aspects of SJ and SJND school life, but their own special unity as well.

A New Beginning

The new school year here at St. Joseph's and Notre Dame found the members of the Class of '83 very busy indeed. They could be seen purchasing books, making new friends, or experiencing the hassles a new locker can provide. But they endured good-naturedly, and with a peculiar energy only they possessed, for with it, anything was possible.

Their scrubbed faces exuded spirit and not a little confusion. The youngest class, eager to learn the ropes of its new world, plunged into Spirit Week '79 and emerged, at its end, just a little bit wiser. With great American Scenes for a theme, class leaders spurred an involvement that created fierce dedication as well as close friendships. "We're spirited, but not quite sure of what's going on," said one class member. However, like all the classes before them, they learned quickly.

By now well into their first year, the members of the Class of '83 found high school life new and different. They learned the agony of finals, and the excitement of a varsity game well played. Some things stayed the same though - there were friends to talk to, places to go, homework to do. All in all, the year proved rewarding for everyone.

Student Council Strives for Unity

This year, headed by Greg DeGuzman and Brenda Castro, student council members worked hard for the betterment of the school as a whole. With unity in mind, they planned dances, lunchtime activities, and afternoon assemblies, as well as acting as middlemen for student/administration relations. According to Sr. Carol, student council moderator, members of this group are "real enthusiasts who work very hard for the students." One member put it well: "We work hard, and we keep busy, but it's fun!"

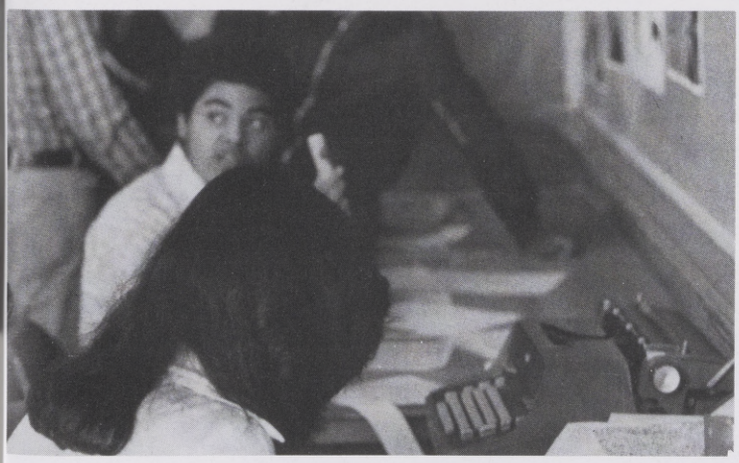
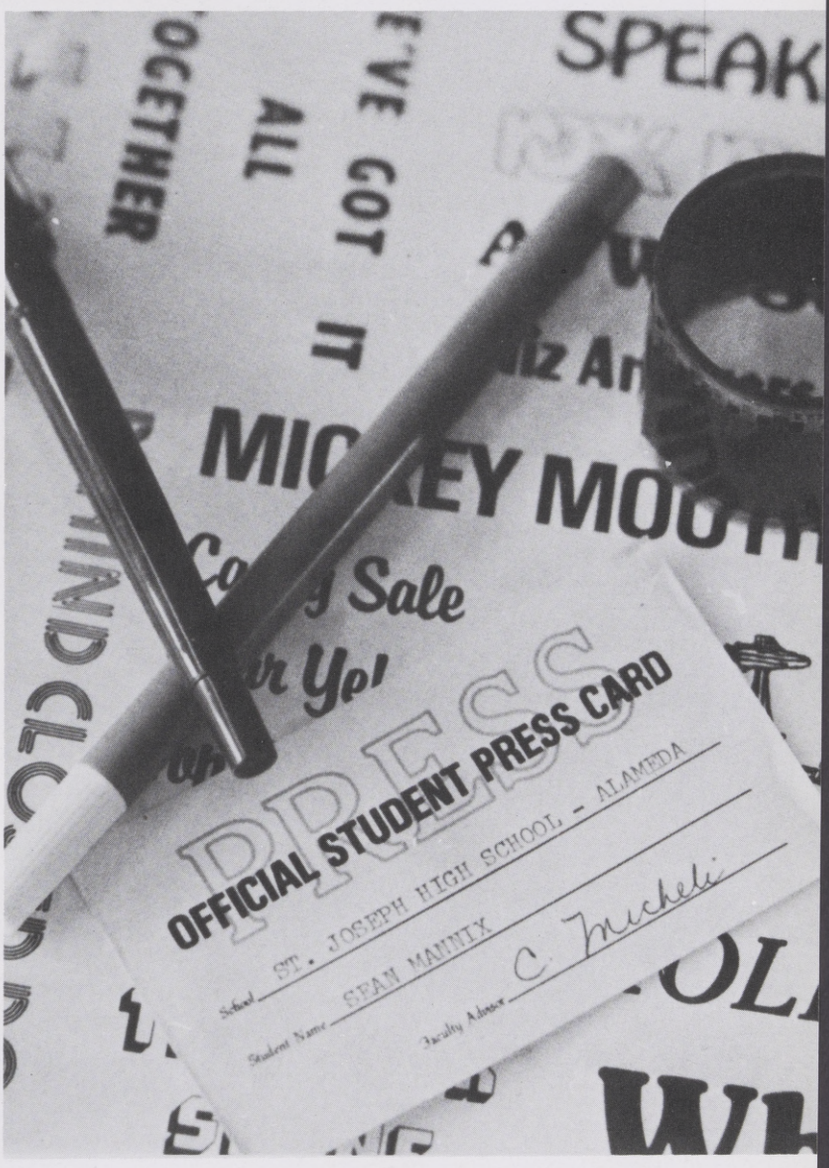
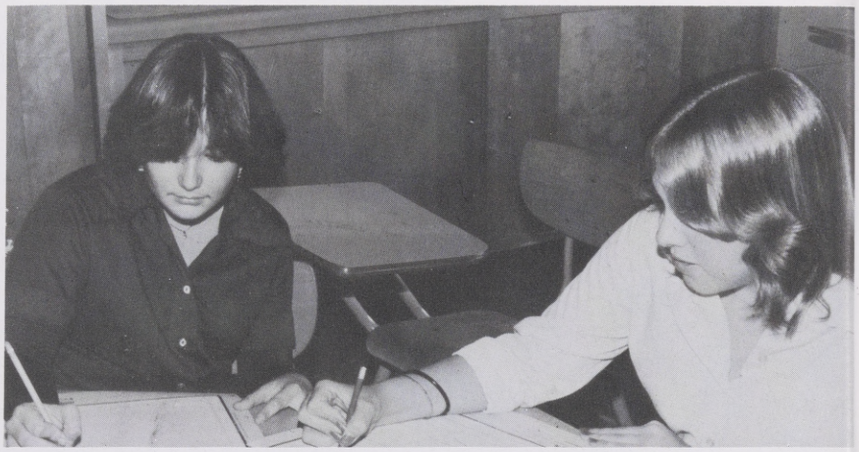
Tap! Tap! Tap! What's the noise coming from Room 205 at second period? Typewriters whizzed, pandemonium was at its height, the deadline loomed ahead. Journalism took a new form for the Kaleidoscope staff this year - behind-the-scenes work took place during a regular class instead of during staff meetings after school. According to Miss Micheli, the class' instructor/ moderator, this helped cut down on chaos when deadlines appeared on the horizon. And, despite turmoil, the staff turned out a great newspaper!





Yearbook: The Year in a Nutshell



Yearbook this year was an ongoing experience. Under the leadership of a new moderator, Sister Deborah, staff members struggled with harrowing deadlines, rushed around campus frantically snapping pictures, and generally poked their noses into every activity at SJND. One hard worker, caught in a moment of frenzy, described it as being "difficult sometimes but worth it!" And in the end, everything worked out - just take a look!

Spanish Club Spreads Culture

Back Row: C. Cortez, K. Bell, I. Damen, B. Bejarano, J. Giron, M. Fortez, E. Martinez, S. Williams, E. Sniffen, J. Coustier, W. Clemmons, L. Souza. Row Two: L. Castillo, O. Damen, M. Quintero, E. Sikes, S. Ralph, K. Edwards, S. Ralph, K. Reed, K. Hodges, G. Navarro, S. Ruiz. Row Three: I. Torres, F. Castillo.

The 1979-1980 Spanish Club, moderated by Miss Castellanos, had a very busy year. Members spent time learning more about Spanish culture and customs, a vital and important part of the study of any language. The club's Christmas posada was a great success, serving to enlighten those who attended, as well as give a taste of the Spanish Christmas. And, as one member said, "The Spanish Club is a very interesting organization - we try to make Mexico come alive."

French Club Adds Life

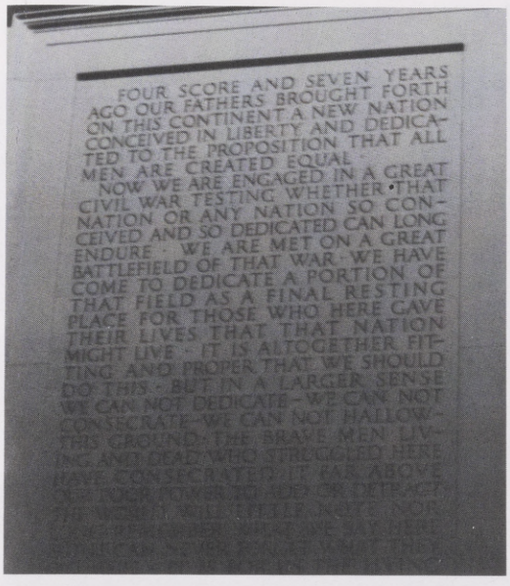
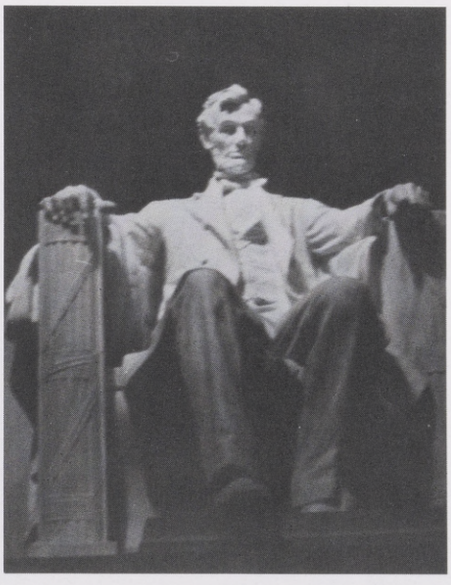
With a new moderator, Mrs. Schideler, French club members once again came together to enrich their knowledge and understanding of French culture. Field trips, special projects, programs and a bit of cooking aided students in coming to know what life in France is like. According to one member, "The French club is made up of a great group of people who are really interested in learning about France. I'm glad I joined."

Mission Club Gathers Money for Relief

This year the Mission Club kept itself very busy with fund raisers. The group, led by President Paula Christy, held an Advent raffle to raise money for Cambodian relief, as well as a "Rice Bowl" collection for this purpose. And, the club, moderated by Sr. Elizabeth Mary, is thankful for the money they were able to collect - according to Paula, "We thank the students for their generosity and remarkable enthusiasm."

"Government of the People . . ."





This year, as every year, students from SJ and SJND had the opportunity to visit Washington D.C., as part of the Close-up program. Moderated by Sr. Anne Locke and Mr. Greg Fonzeno, the group set out early in the year to prepare for the mid-winter trip. And it was worth it. As one student remarked, "I had a great time. I wish I were still there."

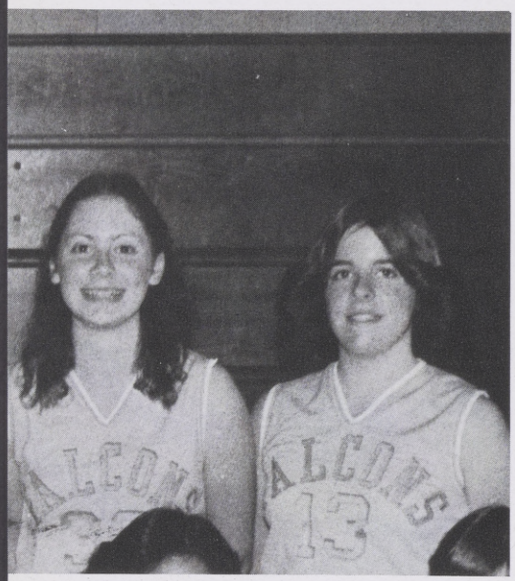
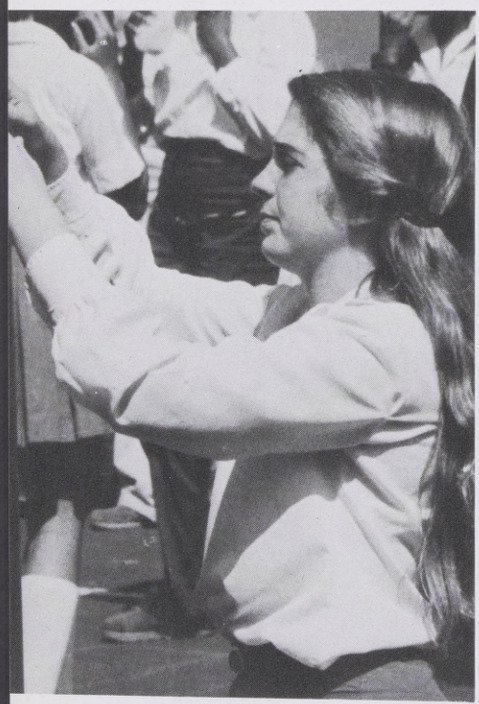
GAA Stays Busy, Works Hard

This year, G.A.A., the Girls' Athletic Association, under its president, Joanne Ratto, carried out its usual duties, but with a different goal in mind. Working for new equipment and warm-ups kept them busy the year round, as one member said, "This year with G.A.A. was a hectic one."



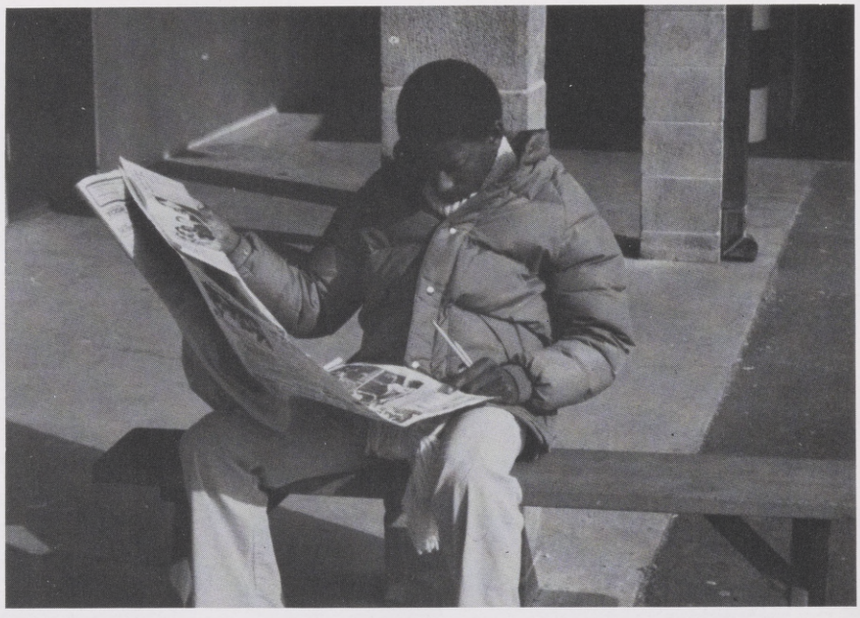
Back Row: J. Pinto, S. Kinney, K. McGowan, A. Howard, A. D'Alessandro, K. Hugger. Front Row: R. Hayes, C. Foster, A. Rozowski, R. King, M. Pikul, E. Sniffen, L. Lockwood, J. Ratto.

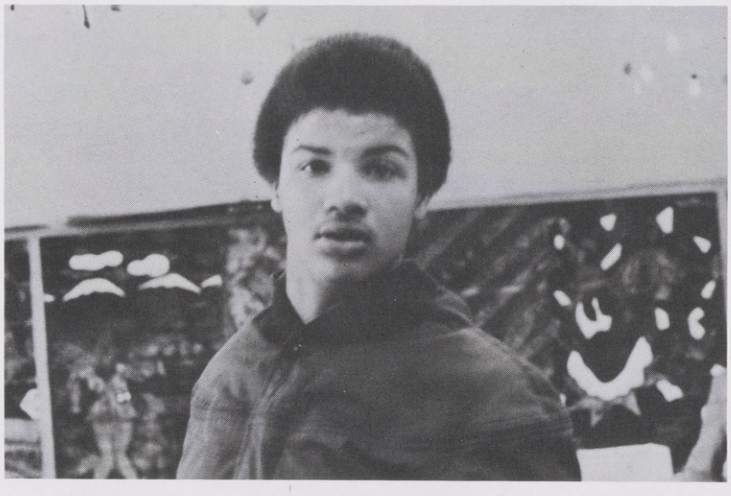


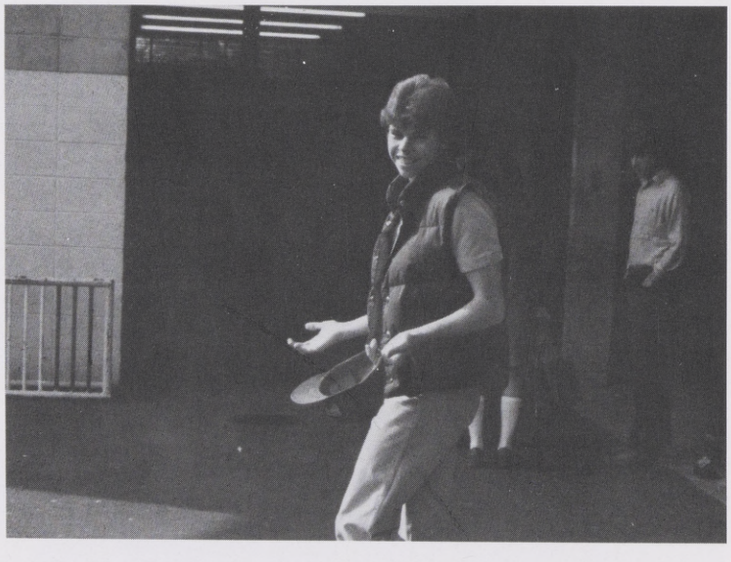
Musical Talent Highlights Year

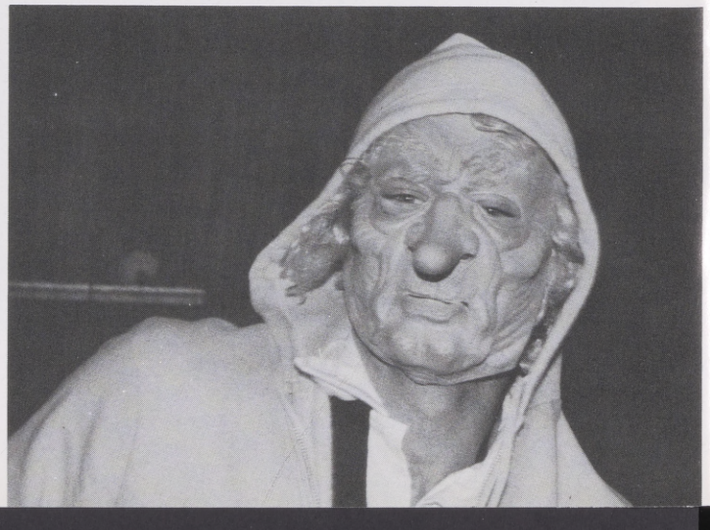
This year's choral group, under the direction of Mrs. Reeves, kept busy with many new and different activities. Highlighted was the annual Christmas Mass, at which the group performed excellently. One singer, when asked about her year with the choral group, said, "You have to practice a lot, but I really think it's worth it."

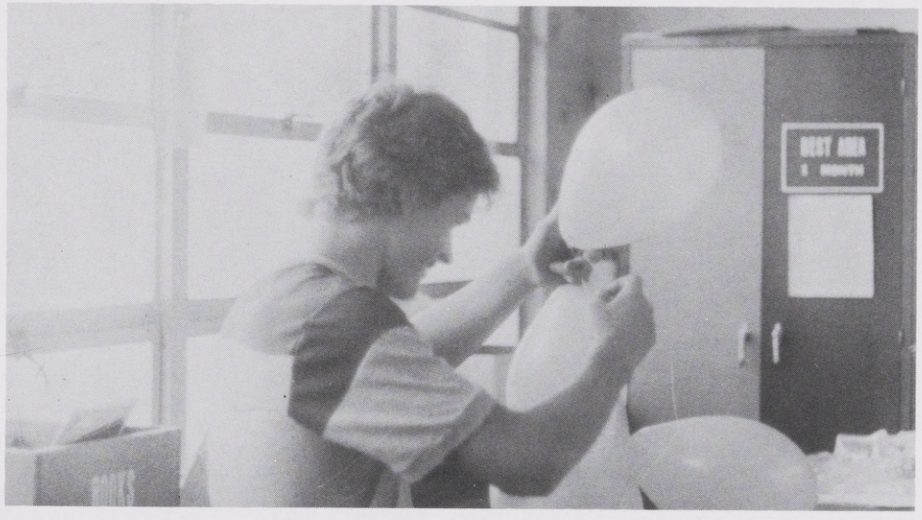
. . . Smiles we gave to one another . . .









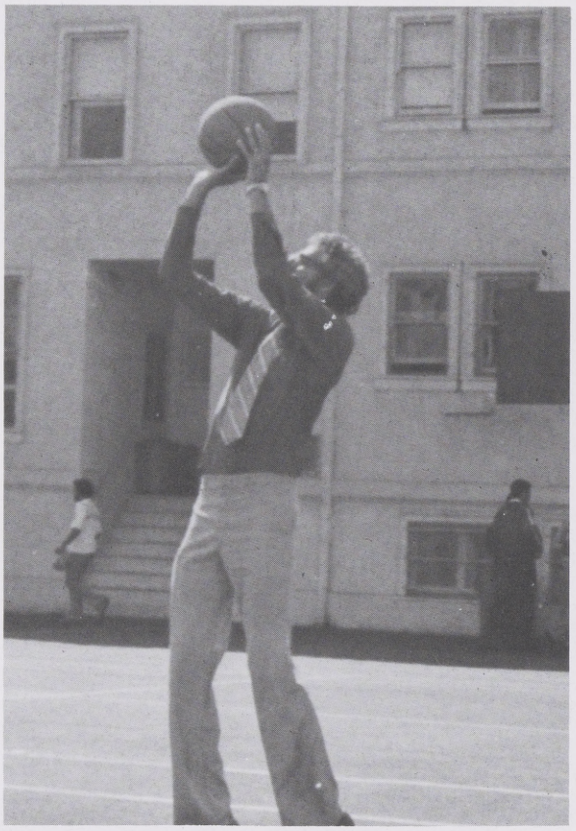


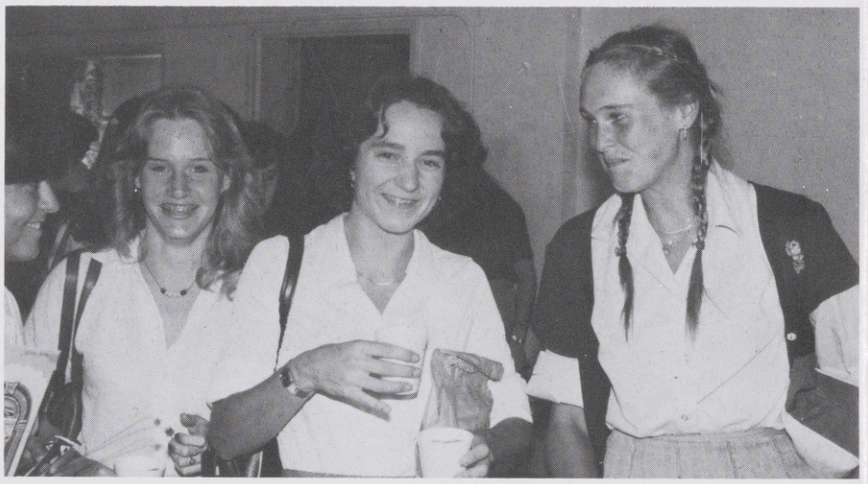
El Rancho Day 1979 brought fun and excitement to everyone concerned. Great emphasis was placed on student participation in the event as the two schools pitted division against division in a booth-decorating contest. The Class of '82 triumphed, holding the lead with the top three booths.

Good food, rides, and games of chance also contributed to the carnival atmosphere. And once again, a superb joining of forces made this important annual fund raiser a memorable experience.

El Rancho Day — A Memorable Experience

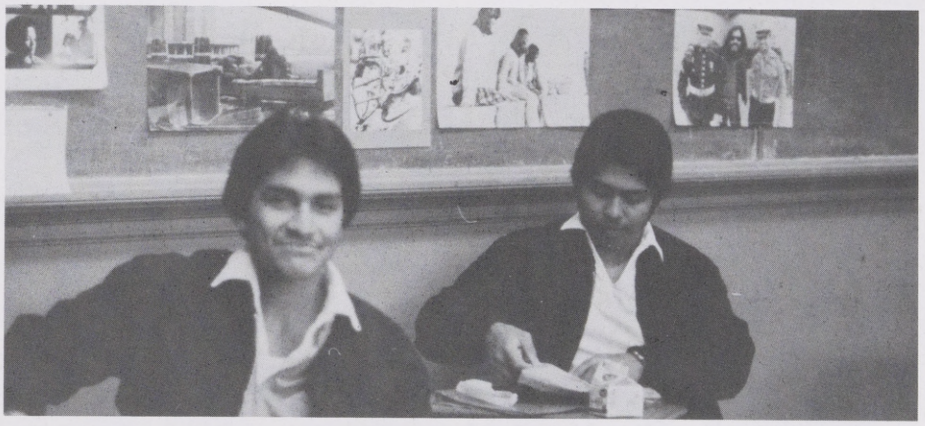
Lunch Time Activities





Lunch Activities Bring Spirit

This year, the daily break for lunch, sometimes a boring period, brought spirit and fun to SJ and SJND. Students participated in a variety of activities and games, including volleyball, chess, and ping pong. All in all, everyone agreed, the time was well spent.

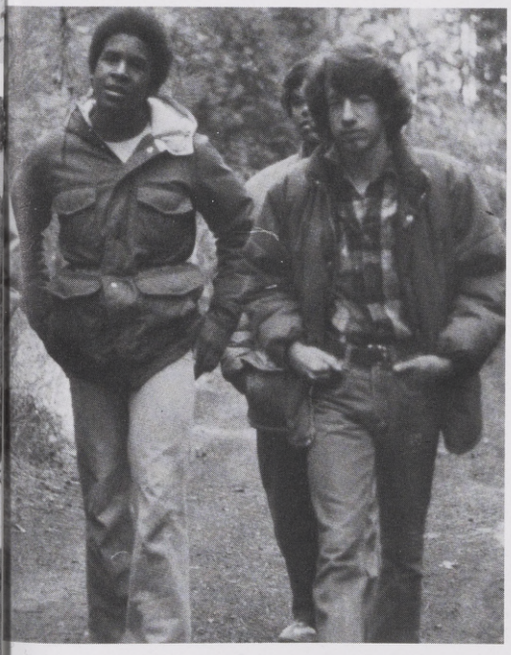


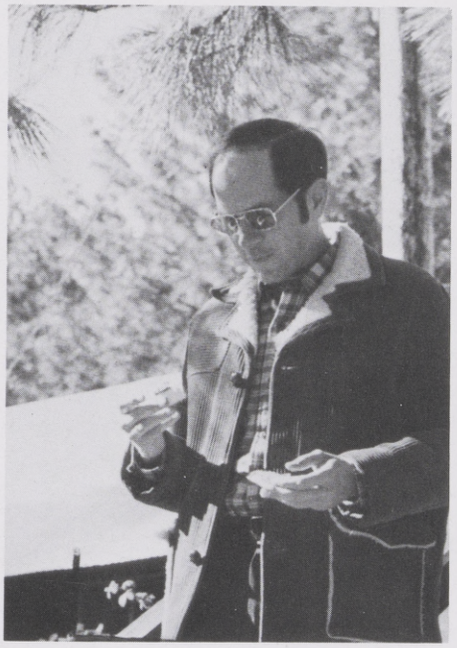
Food, Frisbees and Friends — A Picnic

Ho-hum days. Homework-filled nights. Such was the beginning of school. And what, reasoned student council and faculty members, could be better to combat that dull feeling than a school picnic? So, on a warm September afternoon, interested parties appeared at Crown Memorial Beach, dragging friends and acquaintances behind them. They brought food and Frisbees, balls and balloons, each one ready for some late-summer fun. And that's just what they got!

CLF: Sharing Life's Experiences

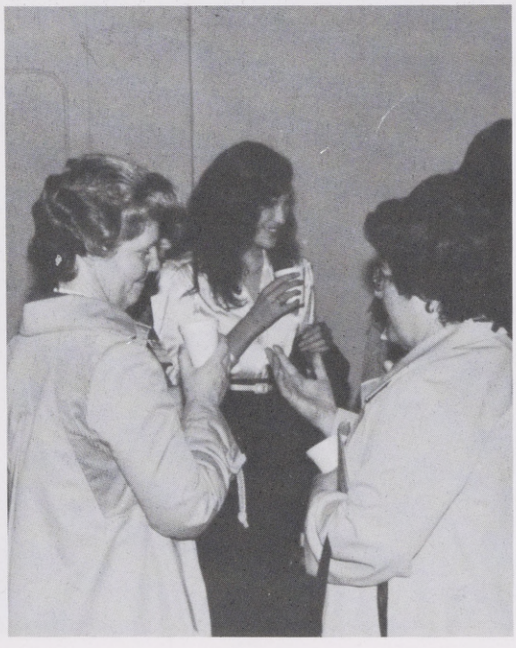
Christian Leadership Formation — three words that meant a lot to sixteen hard-working juniors here this year. What is "CLF"? Aimed at more complete service, both personally and for the community, the program allows participants several short retreats throughout the year. When they returned home, SJND group members strove to serve the student body better, using what they had learned. They all agreed it was worth it.





Mass Exemplifies Unity

This year, Notre Dame parents and teachers combined with students to organize a Mass for the whole family. With hard work and good ideas the students and faculty presented everyone with a night to remember. With unity as their theme, they exemplified the true Christian spirit of Notre Dame and an enjoyable evening was experienced by all.



That's the Spirit!

Americanism . . . the theme, spirit . . . the idea, unity . . . the goal. A combination of these produced Spirit' Week 1979. This year judges had much from which to choose: Entertainment and Comedy, California, Time Machine, and Great American Scenes. And though competition was fierce, the Seniors emerged victorious. All in all, Spirit Week brought out the pride, interest and enthusiasm in every SJ and SJND student.

Winter Ball Renews Student Spirit

As January rolled around again, it was time for the second annual Winter Ball, a "winter wonderland" where students could dance away those midsemester blues. Although attendance could have been better, those who did attend thought everything was great. According to many, the band, Avalon, was "perfect" and the entire dance was a "great success". And that's all that counts, right?

Runners End Up Victorious

Desire: a wish, a longing, a craving. What, you say, does desire have to do with running cross-country? According to Mr. Coakley, this year's cross-country coach, a runner needs an "inner will and desire to run with pain," or, as one runner puts it, "You need to be a happy masochist."

Well, these "happy masochists" ran a great season. With senior Keith Howard and freshman Mike McManus leading the boys' team, and newcomer Rosemary Hayes and veterans Maeve and Grace Murphy leading the girls, they drove home a good season, which ended with the CAL tournament.

"Bump, Set, Spike, Win!"

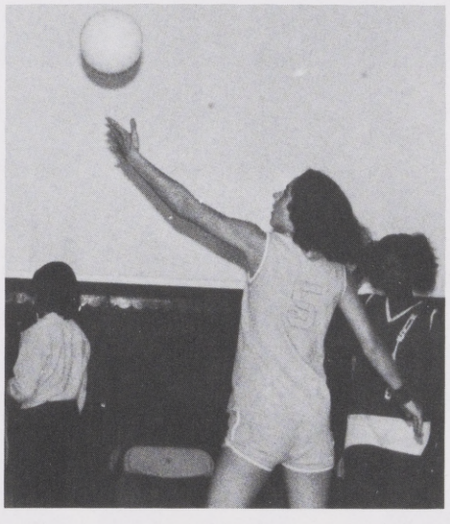
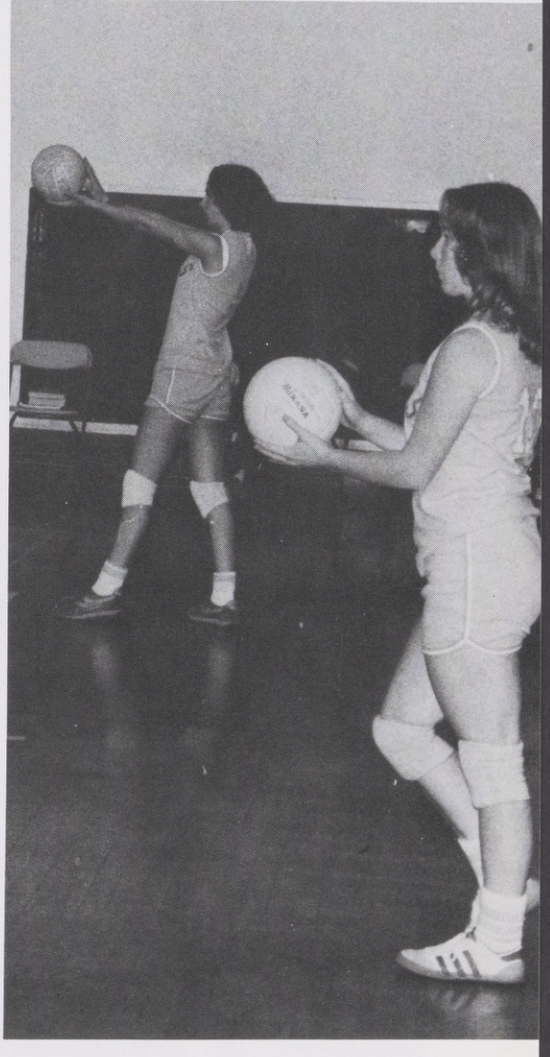
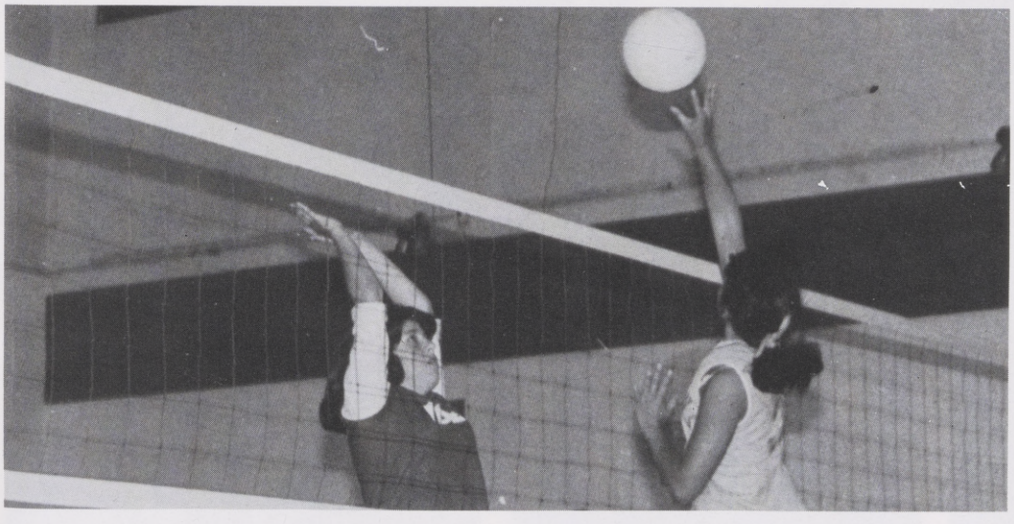
This year, with the help of a new coach, Joan Forrest, the J.V. and Varsity volleyball teams brought home a good record. With 3 wins and 9 losses, they ended the season fifth in the league. But team morale was high - according to one player, "The team has improved a lot - and we're on our way to #1!"



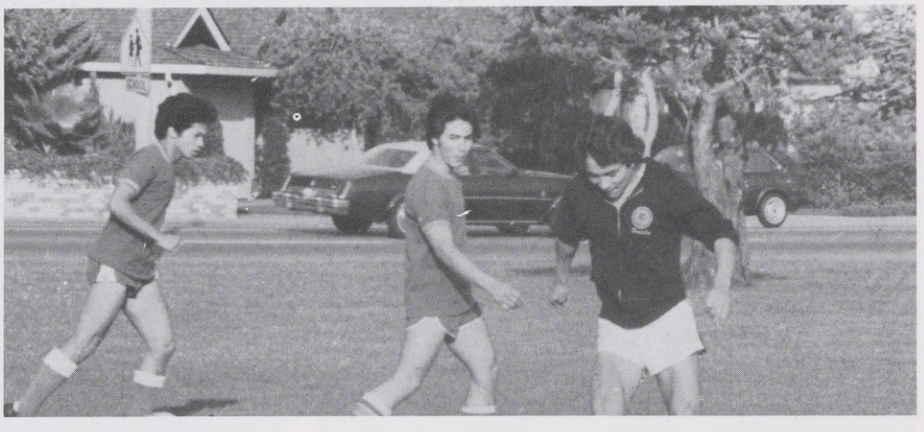


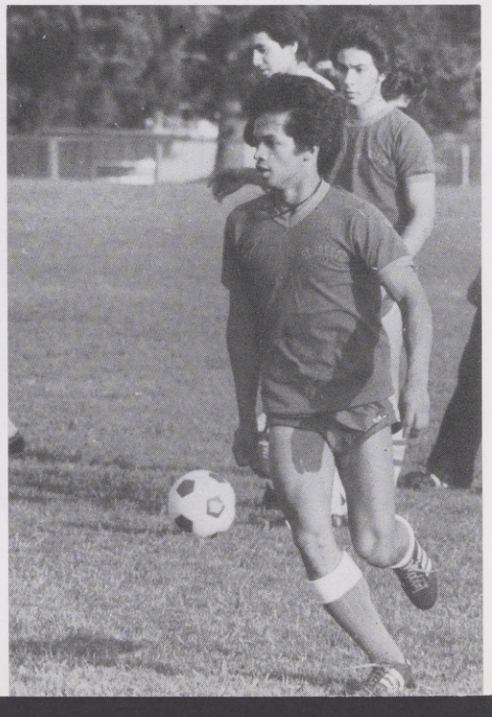


Soccer Team Works Hard for Goal

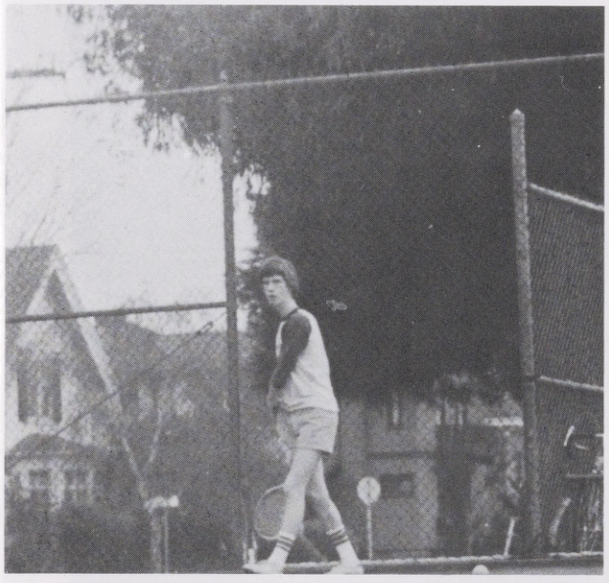
Standing: Coach Mino, T. Toleran, J. Cortez, B. Cressy, S. Gonzalez, J. Rodriguez, F. Martinez, F. Castillo, M. Ramirez, A. Perez. Kneeling: J. Murphy, M. Liebthal, M. Cordero, D. Quinn, A. Liebthal, T. Richardson.

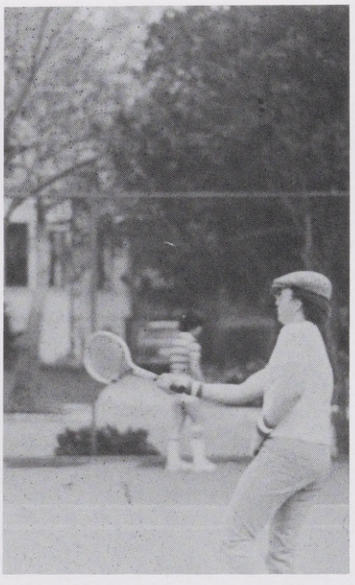
St. Joseph's soccer team last year ended the season on a high note. With a 7-6 pre-season record, and 11-11 overall, the team had hopes of securing a play-off berth. All players practiced many long hours for this goal. And, although the team was stopped before reaching it, Coach Fred Mino emphasized steady improvement in team members, and was sure they would attend the play-offs in 1981. Good luck!





Pilots Netters Smash Opponents





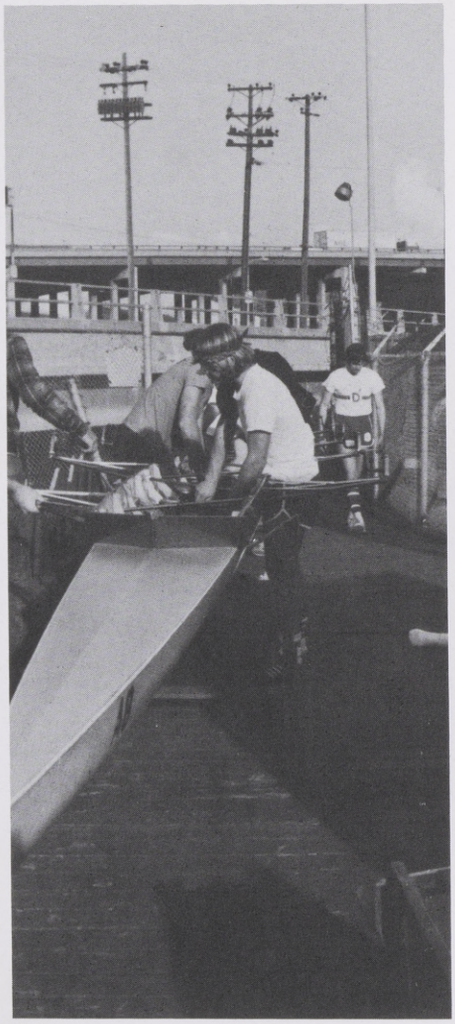
Back Row: S. Daniels, J. Duncan, P. Villa, K. Moraes, R. Garcia, G. DeGuzman. Row Two: A bystander, J. Baumgartner, M. Pola, D. McMillan, B. Arucan.

The 1980 St. Joseph Pilots tennis squad had a very good year. With several returning players to back them up, the newer players were in good positions to beat their opponents. After much practice and long hours of hard work in preparation, the group entered the season enthusiastically.

Crew Team Has Great Year

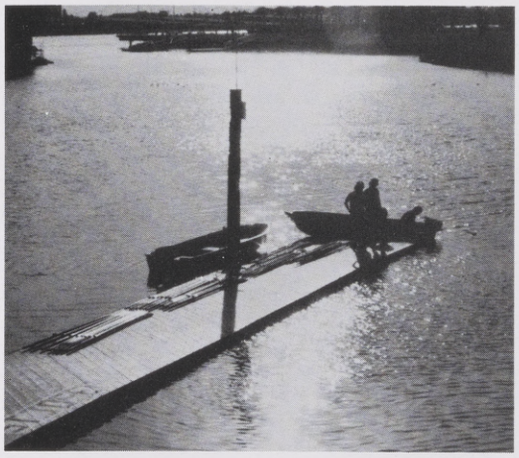
The 1980 crew season, for SJ oarsmen, was a great one, coached by Mr. Joe Mees, and led by captain Bob Maclean, the varsity group combined with Campolindo and Piedmont high schools to gear up for tough rowing against several west coast universities. Not to be outdone, the J.V. team worked hard in races against many high schools, attempting to gain positions in varsity boats.

Travels to major regattas included the San Diego Crew Classic, where SJ was the only high school attending, as well as the west coast championships, and hopes for a trip to Virginia in July for the nationals.

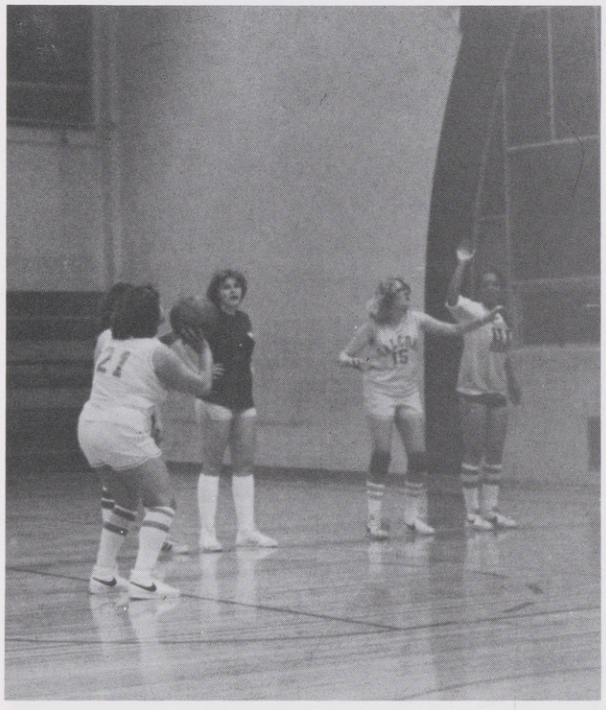


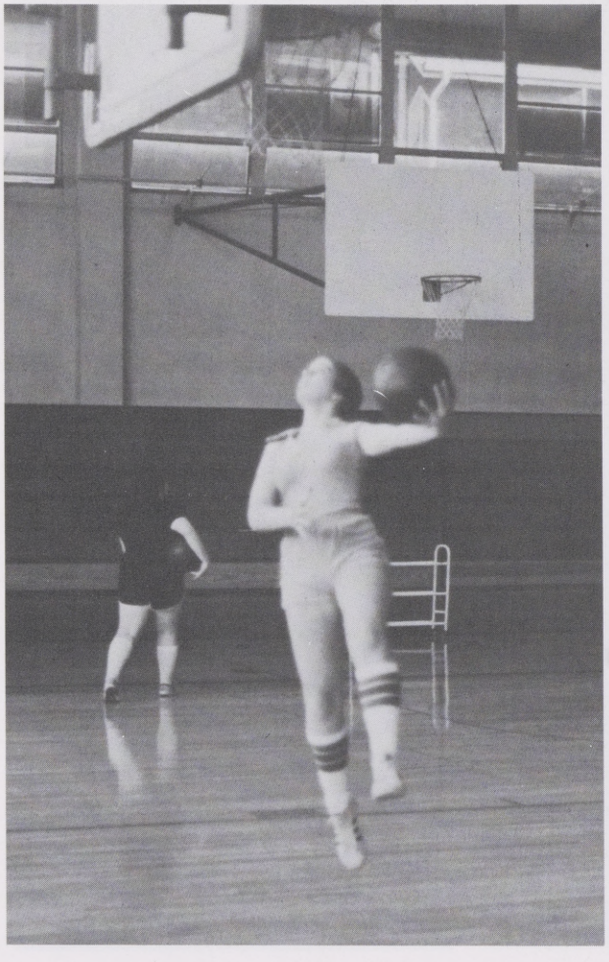
Varsity Crew: Back Row: D. Greenberg, A. Jennings, C. King, S. Mannix. Row Two: J. Rozowski, J. Anderson, H. Menendez. Row Three: D. Bennet, A. Giacomelli, B. Maclean.

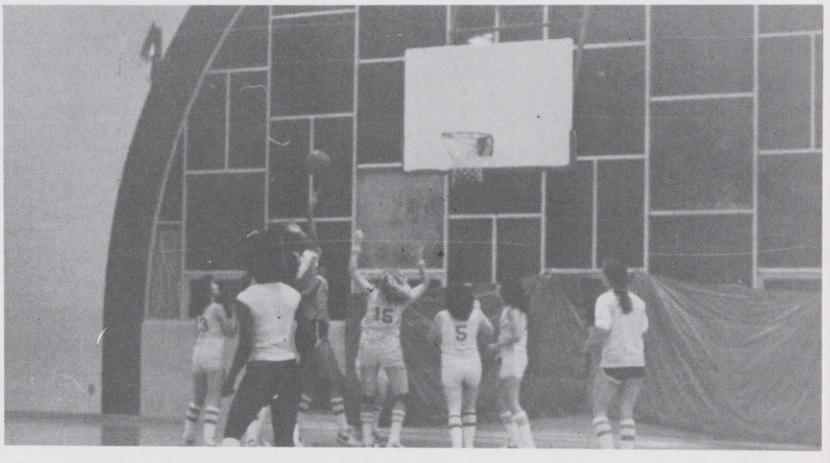
J.V. Crew: Back Row: P. Katsafouros, M. Braten, P. Hamlin. Row Two: J. King, M. Jennings, B. Short.



Falcons Make the Grade







ND Falcons

Back Row: P. Gibson, J. Pinto, J. Johnson, S. D'Alessandro. Row Two: K. Hugger, M. Gibson, E. Burke, T. Contier.

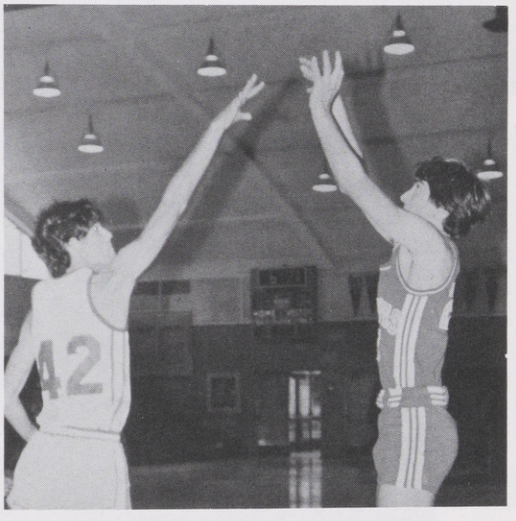
The Notre Dame Falcons, still a relatively young team, this year added a great amount of spirit to the school year. With several returning players, the team brought out an impressive record. According to Judy Pinto, a returning junior, the group "did well this year, even though we lost a lot of games. Our coach was happy with us, and so am I."

Frosh Players Practice Hard

Back Row: F. Perry, M. Fereria, C. Henderson, M. McCatherion, J. Thompson, Coach Walsh. Row Two: W. Martinez, J. Keltner, A. Holguin, T. Milaley, A. Bejarano, T. Hahn.

Junior Varsity Works to Win

The Pilots' junior varsity team for 1979 and 1980 was truly a spirited team. Led again last year by Mr. Dave Saltzman, who returned after coaching the 1978-79 championship freshman squad, team members spent long hours after school in practice. And, although there were a few disappointing, close games, the young squad ended the year with a good record.



Back Row: K. Hugger, C. Marin, T. Aubry, P. Krause, F. Barrantes. Row Two: J. Crestetto, J. Rios, P. Dixon.

The Pilots Are Flying High!!!

St. Joseph's varsity basketball team, the Pilots, under the leadership of Coach Don Lippi, once again gained the reputation it had earned as a championship team in the 1970's. Although they lost the first game of the CAL playoffs, the group had an impressive season, placing second in the league. Congratulations!

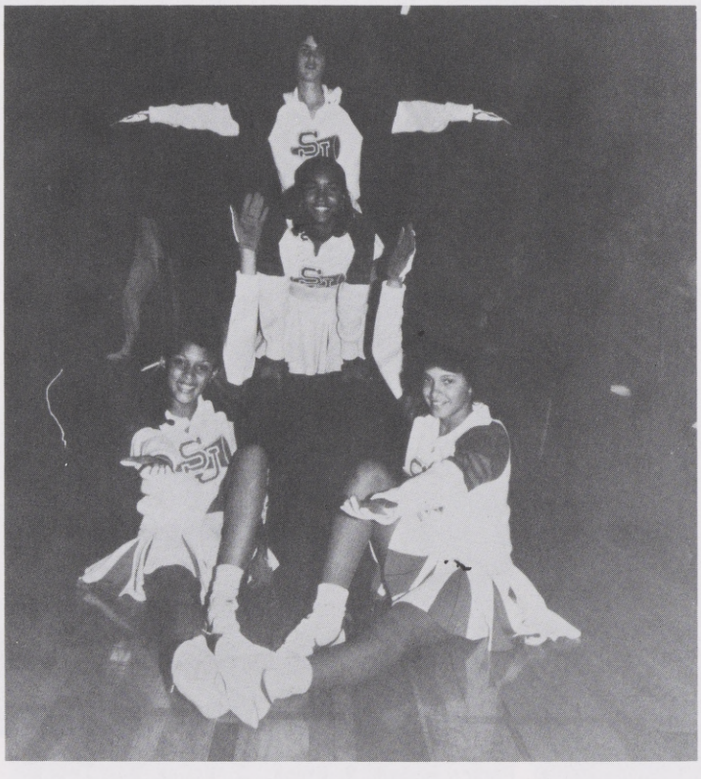
Cheerleaders Arouse Student Spirit

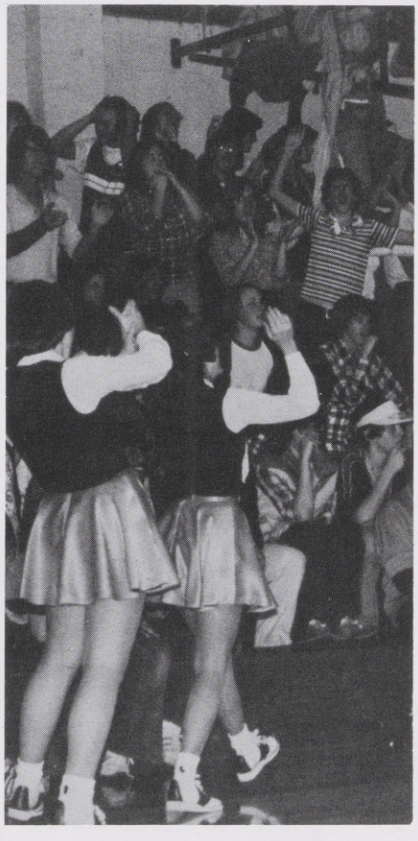
Freshmen: J. Moore, D. Price, S. Morris, T. Chavez

"Rah!" was the theme for the 1979-80 cheerleaders, whose optimism expressed itself in grueling practice and bright routines. They stressed the original, and the squad, three of whom are new, danced their after-school hours away to achieve it. Head cheerleader Tina Castle stated their specific goal: The basketball team shared their spirit and could hold its own in the CAL playoffs. Tirelessly supportive, the cheerleaders were a force in themselves.



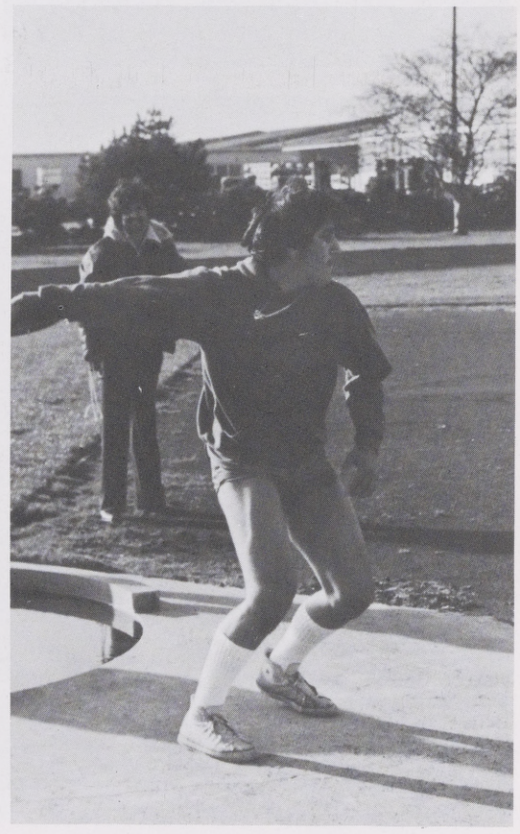
Pom Pon Girls: J. Pelletieri, A. Davis, S. Monroe, M. Evans

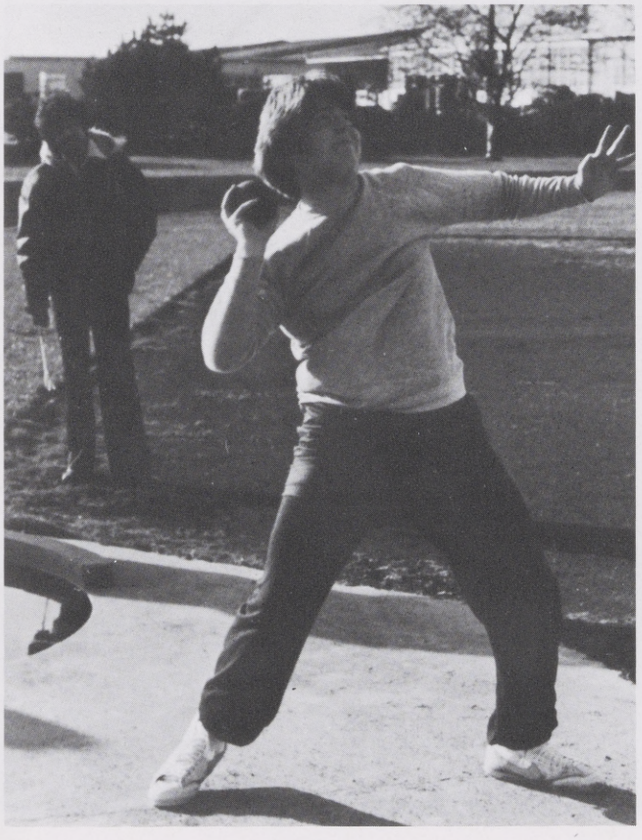
Songgirls: T. Castle, K. Ruehlen, D. Jardin, L. Root, L. O'Sullivan



Track Team Has Fast-Paced Year

"The SJ track team is really looking forward to this year's season," said Coach Fred Mino at the year's outset, as the Pilots entered the 1980 track season with a small but powerful squad composed of seniors Gene Felise, Robert Wood, and Mike Perrilliat, junior David Abrams, soph Weldon Clemons and frosh Jon Estellita. Although somewhat restricted by size, Coach Mino stressed unity through individual improvement, making 1980 a good year for all.



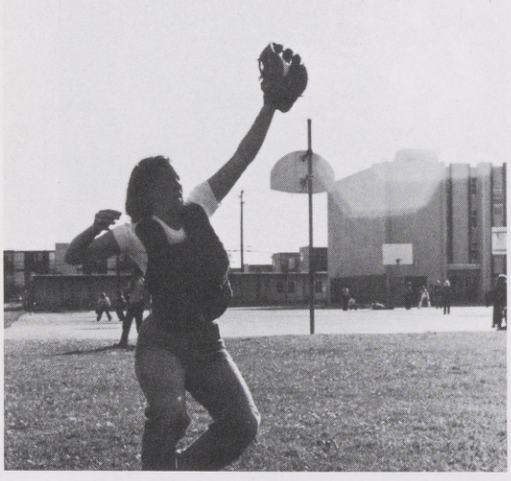


Back Row: D. Greenberg, M. Braten, G. Frank, D. Abrams. Row Two: J. Estellita, C. Henderson, L.J. Manoiki, O. Vaughan, J. Johnson, D. McMillan. Row Three: A. Alverado, M. McManus, T. Jacobson, E. Jacala, M. Kizziee.

Falcons Softball Team Soars

Twenty-one girls attended the meeting where the rules and regulations were reviewed. Only 15 could be chosen. Who are these people, and what were they gathering for ? Softball, of course!

Mr. Don Lippi, the new girls' softball coach, worked with many talented players this year, several of whom returned from the 1979 squad. When asked about the responsibilities of taking over the team, Lippi replied, "Coaching involves getting the athletes together, learning the plays, and having fun!" And, of course, they did.

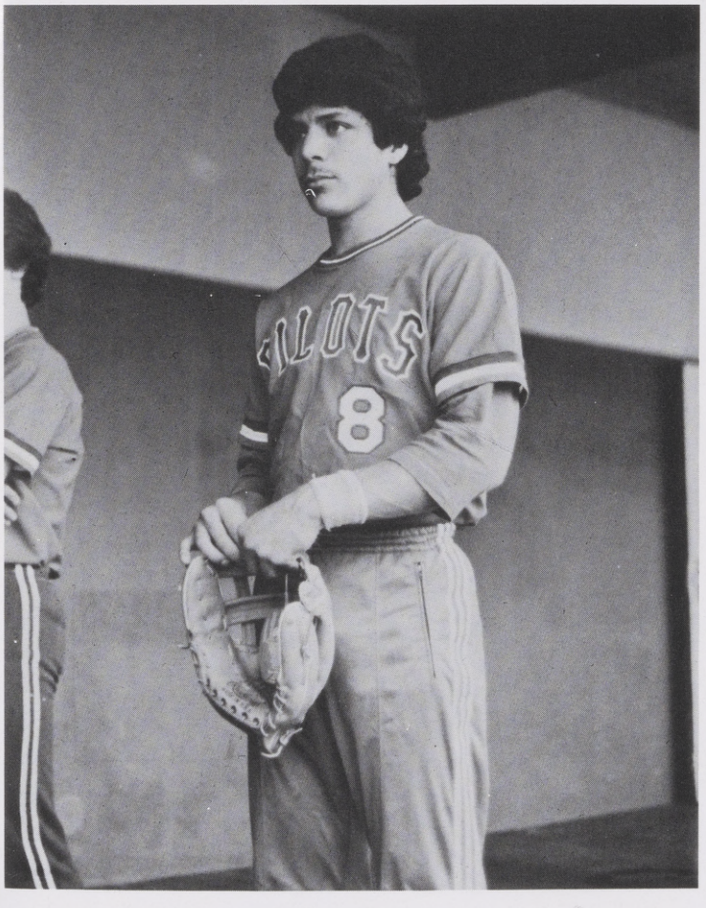


Back Row: A. Rozowski, A. D'Alessandro, Coach Lippi, B. Bejarano, J. Pinto, K. Hugger, J. Johnson, S. Kinney, J. Ratto, M. Gibson. Row Two: M. Ratto, T. Contier, P. Mroz, C. Rojas, K. Jenkins, G. T. Carviello.

Baseball Team Rebuilds in 1980

Back Row: F. Caraveo, M. Craft, J. Marin, D. McGue, Coach Sims. Row Two: M. McPeak, K. Gorham, G. Hall, F. Larteri, C. Villa, R. Eugenio. Row Three: L. Phraner, E. White, T. Solomon, M. Bargas, G. Leon, M. Gibson.

According to Coach Chris Sims, 1980 was a rebuilding year for the Pilots' baseball squad. Returning players included Frank Larteri, Denis McGue, Greg Hall, and Joe Marin. Using their skill, and coupling it with the talents of younger players, Coach Sims helped the team to end the year with an impressive record.



So it's the laughter we will remember . .

Thank You

Memories are precious things. If we are careful with them, perhaps, ten years from now, we will look back with a smile. Those of us on the yearbook staff this year based the 1980 REFLECTIONS on this idea, and we hope that, as you look through its pages, you, too will think back to all that has happened to you here with happiness.

We have so many people to thank for their dedication and hard work. First, we'd like to thank Sister Debby, our moderator, who generously fit us into her busy schedule, Benny Park, photography editor, and Nuala Dundon, Cathy Foster, and Tom Selhorst, our business managers. Thanks too to Mr. Ray Slye and Bordanaro and Zarcone Photographers, who spent so much time with us.

Big thank yous go to our faithful freshman staff members, Steve Babjak, Judy Cronin, Pam Lenschmidt and Michelle Ratto, who were the backbone of the layout staff this year. Susan Timney, Sam Ishaq, David Walluch and Benny Park also receive our gratitude for their excellent work as photographers. A big thank you to Cindy Gabel, Melinda Milliman, Ann Stier and Margie French for their work on the layout staff. A special thank you, too, is in order for Cathy Foster, who gave up time she didn't always have to write something for a very demanding and picky copy editor.

Lastly, we owe thanks to Katie McGowan, who once helped us out of a tight spot.

Thanks to all of you. We couldn't have done it without you.
